Welcome to London Brunel International College (LBIC) and Brunel University London

Life on our London campus

Brunel is a single site university. One campus with thousands of benefits. Everything is within a 10-minute walk. Whether you're going to class or for a coffee it's all close by. Whether you want a place to eat or a space to meet it's on your doorstep. Literally.

Better still, 1,650 students call campus home. So among the world-class facilities you'll find first-class friends.

We're also well connected. Just a short walk away, the town of Uxbridge offers you everything you need to shop, entertain and socialise – and is the perfect base to explore the surrounding countryside. The hustle and bustle of city life is right on your doorstep too, with central London just a tube ride away.

Brunel University London open days:

- Saturday 4th July 2020
- Saturday 12th September 2020
- Saturday 24th October 2020

A multicultural and diverse city where you will feel at home, no matter where you are from.

Brunel University London is the closest university to London's Heathrow Airport, providing opportunities for relevant site visits and placement and career options.

Your student life on campus

LBIC will support you on the journey to becoming an independent learner. A range of support services and programmes are available to ensure you achieve your academic potential while developing personally and maintaining a balanced lifestyle. The services and programmes outlined below are available to all students and are provided at no additional cost.

LBIC is dedicated to providing a rewarding and fulfilling student experience and we encourage you to use all the support services available and to contact our friendly staff for advice and assistance whenever you need it. Staff at LBIC are always happy to help with any difficulties or queries you may have, no matter how big or small.

Full orientation programme

LBIC offers a full orientation and enrolment programme to new students, ensuring you are fully prepared for your new life in London. Some of the things that may seem easy at home can prove a little different in the UK, so LBIC's orientation programme will assist with getting you settled in and will enable you to begin your studies in comfort. Assistance with opening a bank account, getting a mobile phone and advice on where to get specific foods will be offered, as well as a whole range of other information that will help you adjust quickly to life in the UK. In addition, the enrolment programme will give you the opportunity to meet your new classmates and discover more about the social activities available.

Academic assistance

LBIC's main purpose is for you to have an excellent beginning to your university studies, and the dedicated team of academic and student support staff will ensure that you have all the tools at your disposal to enable you to achieve your full potential. The LBIC student services team is there to assist you and provide personalised academic support, including a full Student in Jeopardy programme, to help you get back on track with your studies.

Supportive learning environment

As an LBIC student you will enjoy smaller class sizes and one-to-one tutorial sessions. This will allow you to successfully bridge the gap between your previous studies and Brunel, providing you with the skills, knowledge and expertise that will enable you to excel at your university studies and ultimately graduate with an internationally recognised Bachelor's or Master's degree from Brunel University.

24/7 contact

LBIC is located on Brunel University London's campus, a secure and safe student environment. An experienced student services team is available throughout the day at LBIC for any help or advice you may need. Out of office hours, 24 hours a day, it is possible to call a dedicated LBIC emergency phone in case of any urgent issues.

Social activities at LBIC

Although you will be at LBIC primarily for the purposes of academic study, it is still possible to involve yourself in an extensive and varied social life. LBIC runs a range of extra-curricular activities, including sports teams, shopping trips and sightseeing tours around the UK and, with everything that the University and London have to offer, you will certainly find something of interest for when you are not studying.

Student Representative Group

Students at LBIC play an important role in the direction of the College and the Student Representative Group enables you, the student, to represent your peers. Regular meetings between staff and student representatives are held and provide the opportunity for the student voice to be heard, contributing to the future of your experience.

Study accredited modules

LBIC's courses and modules are designed in partnership with the University's academic staff, meaning that from day one you will be gaining knowledge and skills that will give you a distinct advantage when you have completed your studies at LBIC and progressed on to Brunel University London.

English language preparation

To gain entry into an undergraduate or postgraduate pathway, you must be able to demonstrate a suitable level of English proficiency. You can do this by obtaining one of the results shown in the table below and listed on our website. Visit lbic.navitas.com/english-requirements for details.

If you do not meet the English requirements for your chosen course, it may be possible to study pre-sessional English at Brunel University London. Upon successful completion of your pre-sessional English course you will then join your chosen academic programme at LBIC.

Brunel University London's pre-sessional English courses vary in length from 6 weeks to 48 weeks, depending on your individual requirements. The minimum requirement for entry is UKVI IELTS 4.0.

For more information about studying a pre-sessional English course at Brunel visit brunel.ac.uk/international/language-centre/Pre-sessional-for-LBIC

English language entry requirements and pre-sessional courses

Need to provide evidence of your English language level? Take the BrunELT (Brunel English Language Test).

The BrunELT is an established test that has been developed by staff at Brunel University London to evaluate your level of English. It can be used to:

Provide evidence of your English level when applying for a degee at Brunel University London or London Brunel International College (LBIC).

Determine if you need to study a pre-sessional English course before your academic course.

We hold the test every two weeks on our campus in London and also in some selected countries throughout the year. Find out more about the test structure, dates and more at brunel.ac.uk/brunelt

Start dates, entry requirements and fees

The length of English course you require will be determined by your current level of English and the entry requirements for your chosen academic course at Brunel University London.

For more information (including start dates for Pre-sessional English for Pre-Master's and Foundation programmes), fees and to apply, visit brunel.ac.uk/language-centre

"My experience at LBIC was very good. I gained a lot of help and support from all of the tutors and staff. They provided support to everyone, especially students like me, who is from a different culture and background. They supported us academically as well."
