Study Business at Brunel

You'll enter a truly international and diverse learning environment that nurtures future leaders in innovation and excellence. We believe that learning can only be enhanced by research so our teaching staff are leaders in their fields, bringing their unique and progressive views to lectures and seminars that inspire and disrupt. From experts in corporate social responsibility to leading minds in international business and entrepreneurship, their insight impacts your course content across a wide range of undergraduate and postgraduate courses, as well as the Brunel MBA.

In this pathway you will gain a broad business background and the analytical, technical and interpersonal skills needed to understand, analyse and address the issues facing today's companies.

By choosing particular modules in the later stages of your degree you will also be granted exemptions from select professional examinations in the fields of accounting, marketing or business.

Careers and your future

Through our links with key players in a wide variety of sectors, from tech to banking and advertising to accounting, we help you secure work placements that give you a clear advantage as a graduate.

You'll have the opportunity to build the skills employers are looking for through support of our Professional Development Centre (PDC), dedicated work placements on your course and events and workshops from our very own Business Life programme.
